

Have got	Have
(+) They've got a brother.	They have a brother.
(?) Have they got a brother? - Yes, they have. - No, they haven't.	Do they have a brother? - Yes, they do. - No, they don't.
(-) They haven't got any brothers.	They don't have any brothers.
(+) She's got long blonde hair.	She has long blonde hair.
(?) Has she got long blonde hair? - Yes, she has. - No, she hasn't.	Does she have long blonde hair? - Yes, she does. - No, she doesn't.
(-) She hasn't got long blonde hair.	She doesn't have long blonde hair.

	HAVE GOT	HAVE
• possession	We have got a cat.	We have a cat.
• relations	You haven't got a sister.	You don't have a sister.
• school subjects	She has got Slovenian on Mondays.	She doesn't have Slovenian on Mondays.
• school clubs	He's got karate after school.	He has karate after school.
• people's appearance	It hasn't got big ears.	It doesn't have big ears.
• illness	I've got a headache.	I have a headache.
• activities		I have... You have... He has... She has... It has... We have... You have... They have... • breakfast / a cup of tea / lunch/ a break / dinner / some coffee/ a sandwich • a bath / a shower / a shave / a holiday/ a chance / a difficulty/ an operation/ an idea / a feeling/ a plan • a chat / a row / a bad dream/ problems • a look at something / a word with someone

EXERCISE:

Complete with the right form of HAVE GOT where possible.

(A) "Excuse me! _____ you _____ the time, please?"

(B) "I'm starving. Could I _____ a sandwich, please?

(C) "When_____ you_____ Maths?" - "On Tuesdays and Thursdays"

(D) "Why's Ann taking some aspirin?" - "Because she _____ a headache."

(E) "What would you like to drink?" - "I'll_____a Coke, please."

(F) I usually _____ eggs for breakfast.

(G) "Maria _____a baby. It's a girl. They're calling her Lily."

(H) She _____ a shower every evening.

(I) "David! Can I _____ a word with you for a moment?"

(J) Daisy _____ (not) a new computer. It's breaking down all the time!

(K) Thomas _____ some crisps in his bag.

(L) "I know!" "I _____ the answer!"

(M) Rachel usually _____ her lunch at the canteen.

(N) _____my cousin _____ piano lessons after school?

LIVEWORKSHEETS