

Choose the adverb of probability and certainty between brackets that fits the sentence best.

1. They are _____ working on a project. (unlikely / probably)
2. _____ I will join tonight. (Perhaps / Doubtless)
3. It's not the only option, but it's the most _____. (likely / unlikely)
4. She _____ wanted to visit you but couldn't. (obviously / possibly)
5. We _____ felt we'd hear from him again. (truly / likely)
6. _____ his mother couldn't bring him to school. (Definitely / Maybe)
7. I must _____ come home tonight. (probably / certainly)
8. _____ anyone could be an enemy in that game. (Unlikely / Conceivably)
9. _____ he can join us tonight, no worries. (Of course / Really)
10. He was _____ not invited. (undoubtedly / probably)