Mark the statements True or False

1. Matt Wilder is a freelance journalist in New York City. True False

2. Social media sites allow news consumers to become news producers. True False

3. Anyone can become a journalist by posting an article online. True False

4. The Newseum is located in Washington DC. True False

5. There are over 50,000 newspapers in Washington DC. True False

6. The Boston Newsletter was the first continuously published newspaper in the world. True False

7. Journalists used to ride their horses to the nearest town that had a printing press. True False

8. The telegraph line was built in 1944. True False

9. Radio and television made it possible to broadcast news live. True False

10. The internet was invented in the 21st century. True False

LIVEWORKSHEETS