MAKING FRIENDS

I. VOCABULARY: PHRASAL VERBS

A. Match the phrasal verbs to their definitions.

1.	bring (somebody) up	a.	have a good relationship with somebody
2.	grow up	b.	care for a child until it is an adult
3.	be into (something)	c.	gradually become an adult
4.	get along with (somebody)	d.	be interested and involved with something
5.	take (something) up	e.	start becoming involved in a particular type of work
6.	go into (something)	f.	start to do/practice something (a new hobby or activity)

B. Choose a phrasal verb from Part A to complete each question. Remember you may have to change the verb form.

1. Where were you _____?
2. Did you _____ in a large family?
3. _____ all your colleagues/roommates?
4. What kind of films _____?
5. What line of work did you decide to _____ after you finished school/university?
6. Have you any _____ any new sports or hobbies recently?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

II. LISTENING FOR GENERAL IDEAS

You are going to listen to a conversation between two people who are meeting for the first time.

1. In what city does the conversation take place?

   _____

2. Are the people originally from this city?

   _____

3. Are they working or studying?

   _____

III. LISTENING FOR DETAILS

Listen to the dialogue again and decide if the statements are true, false, or not given. Try to note reasons for your answers.

Emma White

1. She is the manager of a TV studio. _____
2. She has a good relationship with the people she works with. _____
3. She has practiced yoga for a long time. _____
4. She plans to visit around ten European countries. _____

Mark Peters

1. Mark would like to work in London in the future. _____
2. Mark has been in London for almost two years. _____
3. Mark doesn't find London very interesting. _____
4. Mark is very into music. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS