

WEEK 7 – UNIT 3 – HOMEWORK

1 Complete the sentences with some/any or much/many.

- 1 I was in Istanbul for a week and I learnt Turkish vocabulary, but not enough to have
..... conversations in Turkish.
- 2 A: Are there non-European students
in your class?
B: There aren't – just one from Morocco and one from Japan.
- 3 I don't have money on me at the moment – only five euros.
- 4 Oscar doesn't make grammar mistakes, but he has problems with pronunciation.
- 5 I know almost all the irregular verbs, but
..... are very hard to memorise.
- 6 You don't need to do revision for the German exam tomorrow. Just practise your writing.

2 Cross out the alternative that is wrong.

- 1 A lot of/A lot/Many gestures mean different things in different countries.
- 2 I'm afraid I don't have a little/much/a lot of time to revise for the exam.
- 3 Many/A few/Lots of Canadians speak French.
- 4 Teens spend a lot of/lots of/much money on their phones and tablets.
- 5 Do you know many/much/a lot of words beginning with the letter 'X'?
- 6 Some phrasal verbs have a little/a lot of/many different meanings – that's why they're so difficult to learn.
- 7 She can speak a little/some/a few Arabic because she lived in Morocco for a year.
- 8 Do you have any/many/much homework to do?