

Common Idiom: FEELINGS

Match numbers (1-10) with alphabets (a-j)

No.	IDIOM	EXAMPLE	EXPLANATION
1	on cloud nine	After receiving the job offer, she was on cloud nine.	a a strong belief about someone or something that cannot completely be explained and does not have to be decided by reasoning linh cảm
2	down in the dumps	Ever since she failed her exam, she's been down in the dumps.	b to annoy someone a lot làm ai đó cáu bẳn
3	feeling blue	I've been feeling blue since I broke up with my partner.	c to be extremely happy or elated. 'bay trên chín tầng mây'
4	make someone's blood boil	His disrespectful comments made her blood boil.	d to feel sad or melancholic. cảm thấy buồn
5	lose someone's head	In a moment of anger, he lost his head and said something he regretted.	e to feel sorry or sad about something that has already happened; used to emphasize that this is not helpful khóc vì sửa bị đổ; tiếc cái đã qua
6	under the weather	I can't come to work today as I'm feeling under the weather.	f to feel unwell or sick không khỏe
7	cry over spilt milk	Don't cry over spilt milk, focus on finding a solution.	g to feel very sad or depressed. buồn bã; suy sụp tinh thần
8	gut feeling	Even without concrete evidence, I have a gut feeling that something is wrong.	h to increase someone's interest in and wish for something, usually by giving them a small experience of it kích thích 'khẩu vị'
9	get on someone's nerves	His constant procrastination really gets on my nerves.	i to lose control and not act in a calm way mất bình tĩnh; mất kiểm soát
10	whet one's appetite	I've read an excerpt of the book on the Web and it's whetted my appetite.	j to make someone extremely angry or enraged. làm ai đó phẫn nộ; làm sôi máu