

WORD FORM

1. It is _____ for young children to eat too much candy. (HEALTH)
2. John practices English with his brother _____. (NIGHT)
3. Do you know what this flower _____? (SYMBOL)
4. She's going to hospital for a _____ check-up. (MEDICINE)
5. John's _____ does not prevent him from attending the lecture. (SICK)
6. The children are playing in the garden now. (NOISE)
7. Sports help children different moral values. (EDUCATION)
8. Jack has a very impressive coin which he proudly shows to his classmates. (COLLECT)
9. Basketball will find our new trainers comfortable and efficient.
(PLAY)
10. The shopping mall has put off various shoppers at weekends.
(CROWD)

2. Rewrite the following sentences with the given words and/or beginnings in such a way that the meanings stay unchanged. (10 points)

6. Would you like to decorate your room on your own? (WANT)

Doyourself?
7. During dinner, she never watches TV.

While
8. Jack likes painting portraits. (KEEN)

.....
9. Both John and Mary enjoy team sports. (SO)

John enjoys
10. How about cycling to the country this weekend? (CYCLING)

Let's

