Advanced conditionals – mixed types 1

a) Revise these class notes if necessary:

List of examples plus typical and less usual tense combinations:
http://www.ies-modesto-navarro.es/european_section/2_activities/exercises/english4/conditionals_classnotes.htm

List of tenses & contrast with Spanish:
http://www.ies-modesto-navarro.es/european_section/2_activities/exercises/english4/conditionals_classnotes_2.htm

b) Fill in the gaps with the most appropriate tense of the verbs in brackets. In some gaps more than one answer may be correct; write only one, please.

1. If I had known you were coming, I _____ more bread. (buy)

2. You _____ English is you never practise. (learn)

3. I _____ that wire if I were you. (touch)

4. I don't mind helping her if she _____ me nicely. (ask)

5. If you _____ your homework yet, why don't you do it now? There's still time before bedtime. (finish)

6. I wouldn't mind watching that film again if those friends of yours _____ with us, too. (come)

7. If you don't apologise, she probably _____ you. (forgive)

8. If you're finding this exercise hard, you _____ the class notes again. (read)

9. If you hadn't been talking during the whole lesson, the teacher probably _____ you. (punish)

10. If this exercise seems too long, you _____ until you see the next one. (wait)