Trail of Tears by the Numbers Worksheet

In 1883 and 1839, as part of Andrew Jackson's Native Indian removal policy (Indian Removal Act of 1830),

Directions: Read each fact and then answer the questions by clicking on the box in front of the correct answer.

1		present-day	Oklahoma. Th	orced to give up its land east of the Mississippi River and to migrate to an area in e series of relocations, where the migrants endured hunger, disease and "Trail of Tears." This devasting journey cost the lives of about 4,000 Cherokees.
	1.	What year was the Indian Removal Act initiated?
		□ 1890	□ 1830	□ 2020
	2.	About how many Cherokees died during their move west?
		□ 2,000	□ 8,000	□ 4,000
		following the	me the fifth major tribe to experience forced relocation to the Indian territory, ckasaw, Creek and Seminole tribes. The Cherokee nation moved from its ancestra Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama to land set aside for them in what is Oklahoma.
	3.	The Cherokee In	dians were the	e major tribe to be forced to relocate
		☐ 5th	□ 1st	□ 10 th
	More than 15,000 Cherokee Indians were removed by the U.S. army. They were held in concert camps through the summer and then forced to travel over 1,000 miles on foot to Indian territor hard conditions.
	4.	How many Cherokee Indians were removed by the U.S. Army?
		□ 5,000	□ 2,000	□ 15,000
	5.	They were forced to travel on foot how many miles?
		□ 1,000	□ 100	□ 10,000

The result of the U.S. government's removal policy devasted American Indian culture. The Native regardless of race, religion or ethnicity.

Americans had been a strong and vibrant part of North American history, but what the government did to these people is difficult to understand and accept. The forced removal of Native Indians remains a black mark on American history and reminds those who desire freedom that all people deserve a life of liberty

