

Grammar training

Future time clauses

Match the two sentences.

1. Once you graduate, you will have many opportunities to pursue your dreams.
2. As soon as I see the doctor, I will know what's wrong with my back.
3. When we arrive at the airport, we will need to go through security.
4. Until I get paid, I won't be able to afford that new laptop.
5. When she finishes her shift at the hospital, she plans to go straight home.
6. After the concert ends, let's grab some dinner at that new restaurant.
7. As soon as I finish this book, I'll start on the next one.
8. Before we go to bed, let's make sure all the doors are locked.

Then I can start a treatment plan and get back to my daily routine.

So let's make sure we arrive with plenty of time to spare.

Don't forget to thank all those who supported you along the way.

I heard they have amazing seafood dishes.

I can't wait to see what happens next in the series.

Maybe I can save up for it over the next few months.

She's been working long hours lately and needs some rest.

Safety first, right?