SIMPLE, COMPOUND, AND COMPLEX SENTENCES

Unscramble the words to make simple sentences. Remember that each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with a punctuation mark.

liked animals. / has never / My dad
have always/ My friends and I/ been together.
four times / eaten pizza / You have / this week.
watched / this movie? / Have you have / a lot. /studied / I /

Unscramble the words to make compound sentences.

animals, / has never liked / yet he loves my dog. / My dad
we don't go / have always been / together, / My friends and I / but/ to the same school.
you haven't shared it / four times this week, but/ pizza /. / You have eaten or / watched this movie, / the book? / Have you / have you read
so / I have studied / the exam. /a lot, / I will pass

Unscramble the words to make complex sentences.

has never liked animals / he loves my dog. / my dad, / Although have always been together / to the same school. / My friends and I / although we don't go Since / four times this week, / a stomachache. / you have eaten pizza / you will get watched this movie / because you like it? / Have you
I pass the exam, / to Disneyland. / After / I will travel

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Write your own sentences. Three per each type.

Simple sentences:

Compound Sentences:

Complex Sentences

LIVEWORKSHEETS