

1. What does the speaker do during their lunch break?
  - a) Go for a walk outside
  - b) Have lunch with colleagues in the cafeteria
  - c) Work through their lunch break
  - d) Take a nap
2. Why does the speaker enjoy working in an office?
  - a) They get to work alone
  - b) They get to collaborate with co-workers and learn from them
  - c) They get to work from home
  - d) They get to travel for work
3. What does the speaker do when they arrive at the office?
  - a) Turn on their computer and start working
  - b) Greet their colleagues and boss
  - c) Take a coffee break
  - d) Attend a meeting
4. What does the speaker do at the end of the day?
  - a) Leave without saying goodbye to anyone
  - b) Tidy up their desk and turn off the computer
  - c) Stay late to finish their work
  - d) Go out for drinks with colleagues
5. What is important in the speaker's job?
  - a) Meeting deadlines and being organized
  - b) Taking long breaks throughout the day
  - c) Socializing with colleagues
  - d) Working on projects alone
6. What does the speaker do during meetings with their team?
  - a) Share ideas and discuss projects
  - b) Work on their own projects
  - c) Take a break from work
  - d) Play games
7. How long does the speaker work each day?
  - a) From 9am to 1pm
  - b) From 1pm to 5pm
  - c) From 9am to 5pm
  - d) From 10am to 6pm
8. What does the speaker do after checking their emails?
  - a) Attend a meeting with their team
  - b) Take a coffee break
  - c) Start working on a project alone
  - d) Reply to their emails
9. What does the speaker do before getting back to work after lunch?
  - a) Take a nap
  - b) Go for a walk outside
  - c) Talk and relax with colleagues
  - d) Attend a meeting with their team