

Past Perfect Continuous

Read the sentences and place them in the correct column

They drunk so much coffee that they could't sleep for two days	They had been waiting at the airport for over two hours when their flight was finally announced
I had been working on the project all morning until my computer suddenly crashed and now I need to get a new one	She had visited that museum multiple times before it closed down for renovations
We were checking our answers before handing the text when the bell rang	I had already finished my homework before my friend called me to hang out
She had been studying for three hours before her roommate interrupted her with a phone call	The team had been practicing hard for weeks before they competed in the championship and currently they hold the title
My boss was having lunch when I he remembered he han an important meeting	She lived with her family by the time the hurricane hit the country

Past Perfect Continuous	• • • •
Past Perfect Simple	• •
Past Continuous	• •
Past Simple	• •

Uses

Write down the examples that match each use of the P P Continuous

Something that finished just before another event in the past.	• •
Something that started in the past and continued up to another action or time in the past.	• •