Recent studies say that there are now over 400 million mother-tongue speakers of English, but there are (1) ..... more people (2) ..... use English as a second language – around 500 million. However, estimates vary because there aren't (3) ..... official figures.

English is still the main language in countries like Nigeria or Ghana, (4) ..... were once ex-British colonies. People need to use English in (5) ..... official situations, such as in the government and education. Why don't these countries use a local language instead? Because it's too difficult to choose between the (6) ..... other languages (7) ..... belong to the local people!

However, it's difficult to know the number of second-language English speakers in these countries because (8) ..... the ex-British colonies are in poor parts of the world, (9) ..... people don't often get an education. This means that only a small percentage of the local population can speak English really well, but (10) ..... can say a few words in English.
