Subordinate Clauses

Choose the dependent clause. Then, write ADJ for adjective clause, ADV for adverb clause or N for noun clause.

1. Although it was freezing, Katie decided to visit her grandma.
2. She decided to take the bus because it was too cold to cycle.
3. As it was so cold, her older brother drove her to the bus stop.
4. While she was waiting, she decided to read her book.
5. Grandma was very happy, since Katie hadn't been able to visit herfor a long time.
6. Grandma had barely left her house until she got vaccinated.
7. In summer they got together a few times because they could meet outside.
8. If they meet inside, both of them wear masks.
9. Katie had bought Grandma her favorite pastries before she arrived.
10. After they had talked for an hour, Katie left so Grandma could take off her mask to have tea.
11. She said that I will have to go.
12. The constable asked me what I was searching for.

Teacher Pahola Peña

LIVEWORKSHEETS

13. Although they searched everywhere they could not find him.

14. If the driver had been more careful, the accident would not have occurred.

15. I met a man who was selling use and throw pens on the bus.

16. Last week I visited some old friends whom I had not seen in years.

17. The girl whose performance enthralled everyone is a trained classical dancer.

18. I talked to the boy who complained of bullying.

19. As it was a hot afternoon, I was sweating profusely.

20. I waited so that I would be able to meet them.

21. Things will not improve unless you do something.

22. Do you know any store where they sell used books?

Teacher Pahola Peña

LIVEWORKSHEETS