

1) Complete with the correct Past Tense.

After one of the sailors _____ (find) badly bleeding, the Captain (make) _____ questions to all the members of the crew to find out what they (do) _____ between 7.00 and 8.00 in the evening. Here is what he (find out) _____ : The Third Mate (do) _____ his shift on the bridge while the Chief Steward (supervise) _____ the preparations for dinner. The Third Engineer who (check) _____ the auxiliary engines, (finish) _____ and (go) _____ to see if the greaser (lubricate) _____ certain important points. The Deck Officer _____ (have) a rest for 4hs until the last watch.

2) Past Simple or Past Continuous

1. My ship (depart) _____ an hour ago, but it (stop) _____ after 4 hs at Montevideo Port.
2. The Bosun was not there. I think he (send) _____ an email to the captain.
3. As soon as the boat (touch) _____ the shore, the men (jump) _____ out.
4. My mate (call) _____ AB Gregor because he (sleep) _____ in his cabin.
5. The electrician (fix) _____ a problem on the deck lights, when the chief officer (ask) _____ for him.
6. Last week we (sail) _____ to Japan, it was interesting!
7. He _____ (fix) a line until the wind _____ (got) stronger.
8. My father (work) _____ on the "Georgia" for the last year, so by the time he (return) _____ home to Andros next month, I won't see him for a while.
9. When the Captain (see) _____ his son again, he (to be) _____ very happy.
10. We (take) _____ the Bosun with us, otherwise we would have been lost.
11. The Captain (talk) _____ to a friend but he (want) _____ to have a conversation with his crew to update them.

3) Modal Verbs: Complete the sentences with must, have, need, should in the appropriate form affirmative or negative.

Example

You mustn't ever lie to the Captain.

1. I _____ to wake up early this week, because all my watches were in the afternoon.
2. You _____ play your guitar in the rest room or your cabin.
3. The Bosun says you _____ be more careful with stowing.
4. The Captain says you _____ come to the meeting if you are very tired.
5. They _____ to cover the deck cargo because it was in waterproof packing.
6. The Bosun said that I _____ cleanr the upper deck.
7. The Bosun _____ rig the lifeboats after all.
8. The Engineer _____ angry with the Oiler. He forgot to lubricate the pump and it broke down.
9. We _____ change course without previous notification.
10. We (start) _____ search pattern at 00.01 UTC. Inform the crew at once.
11. You (activate) _____ line throwing apparatus and report.
12. You (keep) _____ a sharp look out for signals of the distressed vessel and report straight to the Mate.

4) Answer using "I don't know ..." and may/ might/ could.

Example

The Captain is not on the bridge. Where is he?

I don't know. He may/ might/ could be in the library.

1. The emergency tool kit is not in the workshop. Where is it?

2. I thought I saw a submarine half a mile ahead. Where is it now? I can't see it.

3. The Chief Engineer is certain this pipe has a leak. Where is it?

4. The nozzle to hydrant is missing. Where is it?

5. We are going to anchorage, Where is anchorage?

4) Use will, should/ought to, or must in the appropriate form:

1. You _____ picked up the slack on the lines.

2. In a case like this you _____ make the vessel fast fore and aft.

3. The Cadet is a determined young girl. I'm sure she _____ be very responsible.

4. Nice, fast job! They _____ have the heaving lines ready fore and aft. Otherwise it can't have been done.

5. Do you think it's a good idea if I keep the springs tight? Well, it _____ work. You never know.

6. "Have you seen the Third Engineer?" "Well, he _____ be fixing that generator in the workshop, but I'm not sure."