Articles: a, an, and the

- The is used to refer to specific or particular nouns. It is used before a singular or plural noun.
- Use the articles a/an before singular nouns when referring to something general.

- Use a before a word starting with a consonant.
- Use an before a word starting with a vowel.

Use correct articles to complete the sentences.

1. Misty borrowed_____jacket from Nancy.

2. I needed_____envelop for my letter.

3. Jacob's dad is_____astronaut.

4. Gavin won_____chess championship.

5. My mother and I went to_____Westgate Shopping Mall.

6. She suggested me to buy_____orange rug for my room.

7. _____park behind my house has_____walking trail.

8. Kevin bought_____old car.

9. _____cartons were really heavy for Aaron to lift.

10. _____apple a day keeps_____doctor away.

11. We saw_____alligator at_____zoo.

12. Gracie lives in_____apartment building.