

Challenge 1:

- Read attentively the main five functions of modal verbs and match them with an emoji on the left.
- Listen to your tutor explain the functions and examples, pay attention to the explanations.
- Write on the general chat your match for the sentences with each of the functions as you see fit.
- Pronounce your contributions to make the complete worksheets exercise together during the session.

		A. To express ability, capacity or possibility	"He can play the piano well."	" Shall we go out for dinner?"	"you mustn't smoke here."
		B. To offer advice or suggestions.	"You should drink water."	" Can you close the door?"	"We may see dolphins there."
		To make polite requests or offerings	" May I borrow your pen?"	"He could fix the computer."	" Could I use your phone?"
		To express obligation or prohibition	"You must study for the exam."	"You shouldn't work at night."	"She might be coming late."
		To express uncertainty, probability or doubt	"He might come to the party."	"She can drive a truck."	"He has to attend meetings."

@SENAcomunica

www.sena.edu.co

LIVEWORKSHEETS