

Grammar training

Will or Be going to?

Match the rule to the sentence.

Prediction without evidence

Offer or willingness

Decision made at the moment

Threat

Invitation

Future clause

Promise

Plan and intention

Warning

Prediction based on evidence

Request

Facts about future we cannot control

1. Don't worry, I will keep your secret about the surprise party for Sarah.

2. -Oh no, I forgot to buy chips for the party!

-No worries, I will grab some from the store right now.

3. I have a feeling that she will be the next big music sensation.

4. If you need any help with your math homework, I will gladly assist you.

5. After high school, I'm going to travel and explore different countries.

6. The clouds are getting darker; it's going to rain soon.

7. If you don't stop spreading rumors about me, I will expose your secrets to everyone.

8. Be careful when you cross the road, or you will risk getting hit by a car.

9. Will you please help me carry these heavy boxes upstairs?

10. Will you come to my birthday party this Saturday? It's going to be a blast!

11. She will turn 18 next month, and there's nothing we can do to stop time from passing.

12. When I arrive at the party, I will call you to let you know I'm there.
