

Present Perfect Simple:

I (1) _____ (visit) many countries around the world. Last year, I (2) _____ (travel) to Europe and (3) _____ (explore) various cities. So far, I (4) _____ (enjoy) every moment of my travels. I (5) _____ (meet) fascinating people and (6) _____ (try) delicious food from different cultures. Traveling has been an amazing experience, and I (7) _____ (learn) so much about the world.

Present Perfect Continuous:

The kids (1) _____ (play) in the garden all afternoon. They (2) _____ (run) around, laughing, and having a great time. It's been such a beautiful day, and they (3) _____ (enjoy) the sunshine. I (4) _____ (watch) them from the window and (5) _____ (smile) as I see how much joy they (6) _____ (bring) to each other. They (7) _____ (play) like this for hours.

Past Perfect Simple:

By the time I arrived at the party, my friends (1) _____ (already, eat) all the pizza. They (2) _____ (order) it before I got there. When I (3) _____ (join) them, they (4) _____ (finish) their slices, and they (5) _____ (look) very satisfied. Luckily, there were still some snacks left, so I (6) _____ (grab) a few to munch on while we chatted.

Past Perfect Continuous:

Before the storm hit, the workers (1) _____ (work) tirelessly on building the house. They (2) _____ (spend) weeks preparing the foundation and (3) _____ (put) up the walls. The wind (4) _____ (blow) strongly, and the rain (5) _____ (fall) heavily when they (6) _____ (finally, finish) the roof. They were exhausted but relieved that their hard work (7) _____ (pay off).