Grammar

Reported speech for questions

We use reported speech to say or repeat questions someone asked before the time of speaking.

To change the questions to reported speech, we

- use reporting verbs such as ask, wonder, etc.
- keep the question word (who, what, where, etc.) in a Wh- question.
Ben asked, "What do the H'Mông people do for a living?"
→ Ben asked what the H'Mông people did for a living.
- use if/whether when reporting Yes-No questions.
Ben asked, "Does your family celebrate the New Year?"
→ Ben asked if/whether my family celebrated the New Year.
