

PHOTOGRAPHY TECHNIQUES

1. Write the correct name of the photography technique using the words from the box:

- Aerial
- Panoramic
- Bokeh
- Tilt-shift
- Vignetting
- Framing
- Motion blur
- Infrared
- Negative Space
- Macro
- Leading Lines
- High Dynamic range
- Smoke art
- Depth of field
- Monochrome

1 A _____ is a technique where one element of the image is intentionally blurred and some portions of an image are out of focus.

2 _____ is a process of composing picture and drawing focus to the subject in the photo by blocking other parts of the image.

3 _____ photography is the taking of photographs from an aircraft or other airborne platforms.

4 _____ Photography is close-up photography of small subjects, including things like bugs and flowers.

5 _____ is a photography technique that shows the distance between the closest and farthest objects as extremely sharp and in focus.

6 A _____ photography also known as wide format photography, is technique that stitches multiple images from the same camera together to form a single, wide photograph.

7 _____ is the darkness that occurs in the corners of an image compared to its centre brightness.

8 _____ photography is a type of photography that uses films, sensors or lenses with infrared light sensitivity to capture wavelengths of light that aren't visible to the human eye.

9 _____ is a compositional technique in which lines are used in a photograph to direct the viewers' attention to the main subject of the image.

10 _____ is the blurring of an object in motion in a photo for visual effect and to convey a sense of movement.

11 _____ photography is the use of camera movements that changes the orientation or position of the lens so that a life-sized location or subject looks like a miniature-scale model.

12 _____ is the method of merging images to create a final photo and show the full range of tonal values within the scene.

13 _____ Photography is a type of abstract photography that uses smoke as the main subject

14 _____ photography is a technique that emphasises not just the subject, but the empty space around the subject.

15 _____ photography is a type of photography that uses a single color or tone.

