

Fill in with the words:

temptation, sparsely, plight, welfare, acknowledge,
dispatched, abuse, thereof, deemed, torture

1. The director is responsible for the _____ of the children at the summer camp.
2. Permission must be obtained to reproduce this article or any part _____
3. The news is calling the president's overspending a(n) _____ of power.
4. _____ was common in prisoner-of-war camps.
5. The _____ of the poor was the subject of a TV documentary.
6. The traditional Mediterranean diet is _____ the healthiest in the world.
7. Twice a week, goods are _____ from the warehouse to the store.
8. Living in such a _____ populated area, we see very few cars on the roads.
9. We all _____ that Joe is the cleverest member of the family.
10. I couldn't resist the _____ to have a second slice of cake.

Fill in the gaps with the following words:

alike, genuinely, evoke, mistakenly, heartbreaking, resonate with,
subsequently, ostensibly, outlet, aside

1. We hold these values dear to our hearts because they _____ strong emotional ties.
2. They _____ believed her to be pregnant.
3. Physical activity can provide a(n) _____ for your emotions, especially if you're about to erupt.
4. They dressed _____ in black trousers and jackets.
5. It would be _____ to see it all collapse.
6. They speak _____ about how proud they are.
7. The party secretary resigned, _____ from ill health.
8. The work was accepted in the Paris Salon of 1880 and was _____ sold to an important collector.
9. She must put _____ all her antagonistic feelings.
10. His photographs _____ the isolation and solitude of the desert.