

How Technology can Enhance our Brains

VOCABULARY: Complete the sentences with one of the words from the list.
(signs – equitable – unlock – reap – remain – keep – tap – sounds)

1. If this technology is developed, I think it'll take a long time for all the people to have _____ access to it.
2. Technology is changing so fast we can barely _____ pace with it.
3. Being able to communicate telepathically _____ like science-fiction to me.
4. This technology has already been tested on many people and there are no _____ of side-effects related to it.
5. I think there are lots of potential advantages, but it will take a long time. Will we be able to _____ the benefits of this technology in the short-term?
6. We think this technology will _____ the whole potential of our brain. I
7. If we can _____ into this technology, our brain performance will improve significantly
8. Many scientists believe that what our brain can really do will always _____ a mystery.

GRAMMAR: Select the option that CANNOT complete the sentences:

1. Scientists have been able to / could / have managed to design a device that will be able to / might be able to / may be able to enhance our brain. It still has to be tested to confirm its effectivity, which still remains a mystery.
2. During the tests conducted last week, 90% of the individuals couldn't / weren't able to / can't remember what the answer was.
3. This new development has been able to / was able to / managed to improve the lives of lots of people last year.
4. All the team worked very hard to design this implant. It was difficult, but in the end they can / were able to / managed to finish it.
5. We wonder if we will be able to / can / were able to reap the benefits of this major breakthrough in the near future.

How Technology can Enhance our Brains

VIDEO: Watch the video and select the correct option(s) to answer the questions

1. How long hasn't Erik been able to move from the neck down?

- For 13 years
- For 30 years
- For 3 years

2. What has Erik managed to do recently?

- Leave a bottle of beer and take a drink
- Lift a bottle of water and take a drink
- Lift a bottle of beer and take a drink

3. Who was the experiment conducted by?

- The Journal Science
- The California Research Institute
- Silicon Valley

4. What were researchers able to target in the most recent development?

- specific norms that trigger more natural movements
- specific neurons triggering more natural movements
- specific neutrons that trigger more natural movements

5. How did the scientists feel about the outcome?

- disappointed
- happy
- excited