

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a park scene. In the upper left, a boy in a blue and white striped shirt is sliding down a blue slide, while a girl in a red shirt and blue pants climbs it. To the right, a boy in a green and white striped shirt is on a seesaw, and a girl in a red shirt is sitting on the other end. Further right, a girl in a purple and white polka-dot shirt is jumping rope. In the foreground, two boys are playing with a colorful ball; one is in a purple shirt and the other in an orange shirt. An older man in a light blue shirt and an older woman in a pink shirt are sitting on a wooden bench, watching the children play. The background features green bushes and trees, and the foreground is decorated with large, colorful flowers in yellow, red, and purple.
