Let the words speak!

Fay: I was worried though this was my second time moving. But great job again! With your help, my move to the south of the country was great. And I saved 10% for moving with you again!

Susan: You were very friendly to me although I was just getting information for my sister. I was surprised that you helped people move somewhere as far as Botswana. Some people don't even know it's a country! Anyone would choose you just like my sister did.

Joe: When my family planned to move to Fiji, you were our only hope because all the others only sent things to countries near Taiwan. I was also very happy with your price. Your workers packed my things carefully. Everything arrived safely. Thank you!

Gary: Our office had to move across the country in a day, and I thought this was not possible. But you did it! You only charged us a little more for moving in such a short time. And you were serious about each of my phone calls. You're surely the best on the market.

Passage 3-4

3.

Ruth: I've got two tickets for a football game. The Lions vs. the Sharks, front-row seats, next Saturday. Interested? You can take Jessica to the game.

Nate: How did you get the tickets?! They were all sold out months ago!

Ruth: And a table for two at Leeds.

Nate: Leeds?! But I called them yesterday and they said they were all booked for the year!

Ruth: Now it's yours. You and Jessica can have a lovely dinner there after the game.

Nate: Wait a second. This is just not like you. What's the catch?

Ruth: Well, you know this Friday I'm leaving for my vacation in London, and...

Nate: And what?

Ruth: And I was thinking if Charlie could stay with you next week.

Nate: The whole week?!

Ruth: Please! I can't just leave him in my apartment.

Nate: You know I hate that stupid dog! And the hates me too.

Ruth: Please! You're my last hope.
