Teenagers and Smart Phones

Everyone knows that smartphones are very useful and, today, most of my friends at school have one in their hands all the time. Watch a group of teenagers, and you will find that instead of talking to each other, most of us are texting on our smart phones. Teenagers are always texting, and all this messaging can give us Teen Texting Tendonitis (TTT) which makes the hands, back and neck hurt.

Having a smartphone makes teenagers want to spend all day talking or texting, instead of doing things that we are supposed to do, such as our homework. Teens who spend too much of their time with their phones are always tired; they also start having other problems. In some cases, they may have headaches. This happens because most teens keep their smartphones near them while sleeping so that they can answer texts and calls. They often feel they have to be available around the clock.

Using texting all the time as a way of communication can also make us teens worry a lot. Answering all my friends' texts can make me happy because it makes me feel popular. However, if any of my friends take a long time to send back a text, then I can feel very sad.

Question 19. Teen Texting Tendonitis can make teens have problems with

- A. their head.
- B. their hands.
- C. their sleep.

Question 20. Teens who use their smartphones a lot

- A. are all very good students.
- B. find it easy to study.
- C. cannot sleep very well.

Question 21. The writer feels unhappy when

- A. he only communicates by texting.
- B. his friends feel popular.
- C. it takes time to get a new text.

Question 22-24. Read the following text.

My first piece of advice to people who want to start getting fit is don't buy an exercise bike. Typically, people who buy them use them for a week or so and then forget about them. They are effective if they are used regularly but you need to be determined. Most people will find it much easier to go for a gentle jog around the park. As well as being easy to do, jogging is also relatively cheap compared to most other sports. You don't need to buy expensive clothes if you're just going running around the park or on the beach. The main thing is that they're comfortable and that they keep you warm in the winter and cool in the summer. There is one piece of equipment, however, that you will have to spend time and money on, and that's your running shoes. Remember that you are not looking for a fashion item, but for something that will support your feet and protect you from injury. They can be expensive, but if they are good quality they will last you a long time. It's always best to get expert advice, and the best place for that is a sports shop.

It is much easier for most people to go for a gentle (22) _____ around the park. Your running shoes will support your feet and protect you from (23) _____. The best place for getting expert advice on choosing shoes is a (24) _____ shop.
