

Read this conversation. Then decide if the sentences are True or False

- Sophie Hey, Tom. Have you been to New York before?
- Tom Yeah, I visited there with my family three years ago.
- Sophie Oh cool! What did you do while you were there?
- Tom We went to see the Statue of Liberty, walked around Central Park, and saw a Broadway show.
- Sophie That sounds awesome! Did you like the city? How was your experience overall?
- Tom It was amazing. I've always wanted to go there, and it didn't disappoint. The people, the food, the energy - everything about it was just incredible!
- Sophie Would you recommend it to someone who's never been there before?
- Tom Absolutely! There's so much to see and do. It's one of those places that everyone should visit at least once in their life, you know?
- Sophie I totally get that. I haven't been yet but it's definitely on my bucket list.
- Tom You have to go! And when you do, make sure to try all the delicious street food they have. The hot dogs, the pretzels, the pizza - it's all so good!
- Sophie Haha, thanks for the tip. I'll keep that in mind!
- Tom No problem. Maybe we could even plan a trip there together sometime?
- Sophie That would be awesome! Let's talk more about it later.

1. Tom has never been to New York before.
2. Tom visited New York with his family three years ago.
3. Tom and his family went to see the Eiffel Tower while in New York.
4. Tom and his family visited Central Park while in New York.
5. Tom and his family saw a movie on Broadway while in New York.
6. Tom didn't enjoy his experience in New York.
7. Sophie has been to New York before.
8. Sophie hasn't been to New York before but wants to go.
9. Tom recommends trying the street food in New York.
10. Sophie doesn't want to plan a trip to New York with Tom.