

Directions: Listen to the audio as many times as you need to, and then fill in the blanks.

Paul: Hi, _____ is Paul from England _____ with Katia from _____. First question is do you _____ money to _____?

Katia: Well, Paul, it's a _____ question because you really _____ to help people, but I always question _____ where if the money really _____ to where it's _____ to go, so _____ I _____ do give money to _____. I'd rather give my _____, so I know if it's actually something _____. What about you?

Paul: Yeah, I _____ that makes _____. If it's a _____ charity then I don't see there's a _____ really with giving a _____.

Katia: Yeah, I guess _____, but really I _____. There are so _____ charities in the _____, and you wonder really how _____ money do the people _____ get, so it's difficult to really _____.

Paul: Sure. _____ about if you're _____ down the street and you see a _____ person _____ for money?

Katia: Homeless _____! That's _____ difficult because you can see they _____ money or they need _____. Sometimes I _____ if you give money, you are _____ their _____ of life so I would _____ give some food so they can _____, but maybe if it's a _____ person, I am more _____ to give, rather than just the homeless.

Paul: Yeah, I'd _____ with you. It's difficult to _____ what they're gonna _____ the money for, so usually I _____ give money to _____ but if it's like an _____ woman, I'm _____ to give a _____ donation.

Katia: But what about... _____ not men and _____ women?

Paul: Well, _____ back to what you _____ about supporting their way of _____, I mean, not in every _____, but I think that _____ it can just be a man's _____ to be homeless on the _____ and he does have a _____ to get a _____, I think.

Katia: So you _____ the woman really _____ have a choice, and the man...

Paul: I think it's _____ difficult _____ a woman.

Katia: Possibly. Possibly. That's a difficult _____.

Paul: ______. Do you give money if you see _____ on the street?

Katia: Well, it _____, because that's also _____ money to children so they can _____ asking for money, so I _____ it. I also avoid it. What about you?

Paul: I'm a little bit _____ to give money. I _____ in a lot of poor _____ that it can actually _____ be a _____, like a lot of _____ will _____ their children onto the street.

Katia: _____, that's _____.

Paul: OK, so _____ like what you said _____: it's _____ to donate your time than to donate _____.

Katia: Possibly. And _____ things will _____.