

have got/has got

Complete the tables.

I	have	he	has
we		she
you		it
they		full forms

I	I've	he	he's
we		she
you		it
they		short forms

Circle the correct variants.

- 1) I have/has got a cat.
- 2) She have/has got two dogs.
- 3) We have/has got five pencils.
- 4) You have/has got a baby brother.
- 5) Her dog have/has got a brown nose.
- 6) I have/has got three sisters.
- 7) They have/has green eyes.
- 8) I have/has got a new car.
- 9) My father have/has got grey hair.
- 10) Molly and I have/has got toy bears.
- 11) My family have/has got a big house.
- 12) My brother and I have/has got a hamster.
- 13) His grandad have/has got a red car.
- 14) I have/has got a pink bag.
- 15) The children have/has got a lot of toys.
- 16) Her doll have/has got blue eyes.
- 17) Our cat have/has got white ears.
- 18) You have/has got a small nose.
- 19) Our school have/has got a swimming pool.
- 20) My mum have/has got a kind eyes.

Complete the sentences with have or has.

- 1) I _____ got blue eyes.
- 2) You and Tim _____ got good friends.
- 3) We _____ got a great teacher.
- 4) Liza _____ got many good friends.
- 5) Bob _____ got four apples.
- 6) My parents _____ got three children.
- 7) You _____ got a small kitten.
8. Our teacher _____ a beautiful pencil-case.

