

The Land of castles

1. Guess the crossens. What do all these pictures have in common?

2. Read the text (p.162, ex.3a), match the pictures to the descriptions.

	It's a distinctive example of modern architecture in Belarus.
	It belongs to defensive architecture, has very thick walls.

		It was built in the 11 th century.
		It suffered from natural disasters.
		It consists of six museum buildings.
		It is included in the World Heritage List.

3. Tick true sentences, correct the wrong ones orally.

1. Wooden architecture of Polesye is called “Wooden necklace” of Belarus.
2. Boris and Gleb Church is located in the capital of our country.
3. Kamenets Tower was built in the 13th century.
4. Saint Sophia Cathedral has the shape of a diamond.
5. The most recognizable street in Belarus is Victory Avenue.

4. Reorder the words, make up questions, interview your partner.

ancient	the	architecture	what	of	pieces	most	are

is	land	castles	why	of	called	the	Belarus

belongs	defensive	what	architecture	to

5. Listen to the questions of a reporter. Answer them orally. Discuss your answers in pairs.

