How did the kids get the money to buy the tickets for the museum?

They worked all weekend at Josh's house to get the money.

They cleaned Josh's dad's barn to get the money.

Josh cleaned his dad's barn and got the money.

Why did Egyptians bury rich people near their wealth?

'The Egyptians believed that it was good luck to keep their wealth near.'

'The Egyptians believed in the gold heaven.'

'The Egyptians believed that people who died would need their money in the next life.'

What did the woman who took the mummy look like?

What did the lady do with the mummy?

She unwrapped the mummy to take the jewels and left the mummy there.

She changed the mummy's clothes and escaped through the window.

She left the mummy in the ladies' room, on the table where parents change babies diapers.

Why did the kids go back to the tomb?

Because they wanted to put the mummy in the sarcophagus again.

Because they wanted to find the woman.

Because they wanted to shut the lid of the sarcophagus.

Because they left their drinks in the tomb.

Where did the kids wait to be rescued?

What happened then?

(Put the story in order)

Josh thought they were rescued

'They are here to steal the mummies' gold!' Dink whispered.

The children saw two figures in dark clothing carrying black gym bags.

~~The kids covered the closet floor with carpet squares, then lay down.~~

Suddenly, a huge blast shook the room, the folding chairs fell over with a crash and the box of cleaning stuff flew off a shelf.

"Grab as much as you can.", one of the intruders said.

Dink opened the closet door a crack and saw that the place was filled with dust.
They broke the glass cases and an alarm bell sounded.
Dink pulled the closet door shut and they all fell asleep.
