MOVING BOXES

Chris has got a big box. The box is for his things. He is moving. His family is moving. They are going to a new city. Dad has got a new job.

Now Chris is packing his things. He can't take them all. There is no room in the lorry. He can pack just one box. He is looking around his room. There are a basketball, games and books on the shelf. There are his favourite trainers next to the bed and a teddy bear on it. He's got some money in the piggy bank. On the desk there is his bug collection. What can he take? There are too many things. It is hard to decide. What can he do?

Then, his Dad comes into the room. He smiles and gives Chris another box. Now he won't have to choose!
