The body – Stephen King

Chapters 1, 2,3 & 4

Read the question and choose the best answer

1- When did the writer see a dead body for the first time in his life?

a- When he was at school

b- When he was 12, in 1960

c- When he was part of the club in Maine

2- What was the Tree House Gang?

a- It was a group of six regulars and some others who played football together

b- It was a gang of teenagers who regularly played cards and watched TV c- It was a kind of club in a tree house where they played cards and read magazines

3- What was the Tree House like?

a- The sides of the tree house were made out of wood, and the roof was metal they had taken from the dump b- The sides of the tree house were made out of metal they had taken from the dump

c- The walls of the tree house weren't made out of wood, and the roof was plastic so it was always sunset

4- What was particular about Teddy?

a- The thick glasses and his short legs

b- Although he wore glasses, Teddy could see very well, and he often misunderstood the things people said to him.

c- His eyesight was just naturally bad, but there was nothing natural about what had happened to his ears.

5- Why did Teddy keep his hair long?

a- He kept his ears covered because they looked like two lumps of warm wax.

b- He liked the Beatles look

c- He didn't like going to the barber shop

6- What had really happened to his ears?

a- His father had got angry with him for breaking a window, so he pushed the side of Teddy's head down against the table and set fire.

b- His father had got angry with him for breaking a plate, so he pushed the side of Teddy's head down against one of the burner plates and burnt his ears.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c- His father had got angry with him for breaking a plate, so he pushed the side of Teddy's head down and shot him in his ears with a gun.

7- Whose idea was for camping in his back house field that night and go see a dead body?

a- Gordie, the one who tells the story and whose brother had died last April

b- Chris, whose father was in a bad mood because he had been drinking c- Vern Tessio, who lived two miles away from the tree house club

d- Teddy, the craziest and most stupid in the gang

8- Who was the dead body they were looking for?

a- Ray Brower had gone out with his girlfriend and had never returned.

b- Ray Brower had gone swimming and never returned; They were already sending divers down into the pools and lakes to look for his body.

c- Ray Brower had gone out with one of his mother's buckets to pick wild fruit and apparently got lost; in those days it was possible to walk into the forest and lose your direction there and die.

9- why had Vern Tessio been under the front of his house digging?

a- Four years ago, when he was eight, Vern buried a jar of pennies under the front of the house, but somehow lost the map b- his mother had tidied his room and taken away the jar, along with old magazines and other rubbish and hide them in front of the house.

c- His big brother Billy had known about the jar and had dug it himself in front of the house.

10- Who was Charlie?

a- Billy's friend Charlie Hogan was one of the hardest guys in town.

b- Billy's friend Charlie Brower had robbed a car and went to another district to see the dead body.

c- Billi’s friend, Charlie Hogan he ran all the way to the tree house with the news about the body

LIVEWORKSHEETS