

Student's name: _____ Group: _____

Date: _____

These questions have errors in the article. You have 20 minutes to CLICK ON the error.

1. During Coolidge's tenure in office, for the first time in the history of any nation the the mass market developed for cars, radios, refrigerators, and vacuum cleaners.
A B C D
2. Hibernation is a inactive, sleeplike state that some animals enter during winter.
A B C D
3. Sometimes the impressionists painted the same subject in different atmospheric situations to show how colors and surface effect change at various times of a day.
A B C D
4. A clam is a animal whose soft body is covered with a protective shell.
A B C D
5. To make adobe, workers first mix sandy clay or loam with water and the small quantity of straw, grass or a similar building material.
A B C D
6. The American water spaniel, an hunting dog with a thick, curly coat, was developed in the United States to be of special help to pheasant and duck hunters.
A B C D
7. The Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that people cannot be forced to testify against themselves in the criminal case.
A B C D
8. Of all the Native Americans in the United States, the Navajos form largest group.
A B C D
9. Tacoma, one of the largest cities in Washington, is a industrial and commercial center.
A B C D
10. In general, humanistic theories tend to stress the significance of emotions in the learning.
A B C D
11. In 1890 Kate Hurd-Mead became medical director of the Bryn Mawr School for girls, one of a first schools in the United States to initiate a preventive health program.
A B C D

12. The hardness of mineral often gives a clue to its identity.
A B C D
13. Booker T. Washington, an educational leader, worked throughout his lifetime to improve economic conditions for black people in United states.
A B C D
14. Although rhubarb is technically the vegetable, people usually prepare it as a dessert food, often as pie fillings and sauces.
A B C D
15. David Rittenhouse of Philadelphia was the leading astronomer, mathematician, and clockmaker who measured in 1769 the earth's distance from the sun.
A B C D
16. Knute Rockne was a American college football coach who served as head coach at the University of Notre Dame from 1918 until his death in an airplane crash.
A B C D
17. E.B. White was known chiefly as an essay writer, but he also wrote the poetry and children's books.
A B C D
18. Great technical advances in aerial and satellite photography have been made since end of the Second World War.
A B C D
19. Ballads were early types of poetry and may have been among a first kinds of music.
A B C D
20. Oscillation is a electronic function that changes a direct current to the signal of desired frequency.
A B C D