

1. — Did you text Nana?— No, I'm going to phone _____.
2. — Can you give _____ my coat, please?— Here you are.
3. They're hungry. Can you cook something for _____, please?
4. — Where's your phone?— Oh, no! I left _____ at home.
5. He's thirsty. Give _____ some lemonade, please.
6. Mr. Bates, we love your stories so much! Can you tell _____ one more, please?

1. This is my grandmother's piano. I really love _____ .
2. I saw my cousins this morning. I told _____ to come to the party tonight.
3. We mustn't watch TV all night! Mr. James gave _____ a lot of homework.
4. Can you give _____ your tablet? My tablet is broken.
5. Mum is going to the supermarket to buy some sweets.
Do you want to go with _____ ?

Which sentences have no mistakes?

- Give me some ice cream.
- Can you read this book me?
- I want to give to you this present.
- My parents bought me a new phone.
- I must give my cat some food.
- Can you give this letter your sister?

Change the sentences:

1. Don't tell Hanna.
2. Don't show the letter to Joel and Frank.
3. Don't give any money to Ryan.
4. Don't take the apples.
5. Please don't shout at Bella and me.
6. Don't give any bananas to Ella.

Study the example:

Don't tell Hanna. → Don't tell her.

«Sentences»