

Date:

The diagram is a flowchart centered on the word INTERNET in a yellow box. Four arrows point outwards to the main categories: WORLD WIDE WEB, DIGITAL CURRENCY, CYBER CRIMES, and CYBER SECURITY.

- WORLD WIDE WEB (red text) branches into:
 - Four empty boxes.
 - COOKIES (black text), which further branches into two empty boxes.
- DIGITAL CURRENCY (red text) branches into:
 - Two empty boxes.
 - Benefits (black text).
 - Drawbacks (black text).
- CYBER CRIMES (black text) branches into:
 - Four empty boxes.
 - MALWARE (black text), which branches into five empty boxes.
 - HACKING (black text), which branches into four empty boxes.
 - One empty box at the bottom.
- CYBER SECURITY (red text) branches into:
 - CYBER SECURITY MEASURES (black text), which branches into:
 - Two empty boxes.
 - AUTHENTICATION (purple text), which branches into:
 - Two empty boxes.
 - Four empty boxes.
 - One empty box.
 - AUTOMATIC SOFTWARE (purple text).
 - FIRE WALL (purple text).
 - Three empty boxes.

At the bottom left, there is a large empty box labeled "Additional notes:". At the bottom right, there is a logo for "LIVEWORKSHEETS" with the word "LIVE" in a colorful, multi-lettered font.