

COMPARATIVE FORM

A. Listen to the following description about Sandra and Gloria.

Sandra and Gloria.

Sandra and Gloria are twin sisters from Cuba. Sandra is on the left and Gloria is on the right, they are the same in many ways, but they are also different. Read Sandra and Gloria's conversation. What's the same? What's different? (Suggested answers: Their face, hair color and heights are the same. Their hair style, jewelry, clothing, and smiles are different.)

Sandra: When we were young, about fifteen years old, we liked to wear the same clothes.

Gloria: But now, Sandra likes to wear younger clothes than I do. I like to wear more mature clothes.

Sandra: Gloria is quieter than me. I get more colds. Gloria is luckier than me.

Gloria: We don't live together now, but we talk almost every day; sometimes we talk a few times a day.

Sandra: I like to travel more often than Gloria does, but we both like to dance.

Gloria: Yes, Sandra is friendlier than me, but I am smarter.

B. Complete the sentences about Sandra and Gloria. Use than.

1. Sandra likes to wear _____ clothes _____ Gloria.

2. Gloria is _____ Sandra.

3. Sandra is _____ Gloria.

4. Gloria is _____ Sandra.

5. Sandra is _____ Gloria.