Set 4 - Weather

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Cold weather	- We stepped out into a clear, cold night. A pale half-moon floated low over the houses. The grass shone gray under a light blanket of frost. - The wind fluttered my costume as we walked. My shoes crunched over frost-covered dead leaves. The sky seemed to grow darker as we made our way past the bare black trees of the woods.
2	Hot weather	He brushed his coppery hair back off his forehead. His hair was wet, his face was red, and he was sweating. I guess he must be feeling hot from the sweltering weather. -The air felt warm and sticky, making it uncomfortable to be outside.
3	Pleasant weather	The sun was shining bright. The sky was blue and clear without a cloud in sight. The warmth of the sun felt soothing and relaxing on my skin.

Set 5- Feelings (Shock)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Shock	I was still too startled to reply. His eyes bulged with shock. His mouth hung open. “Ohhhhh.” I uttered a long moan of horror. But I couldn’t turn away. Couldn’t take my eyes off what was in front of me I stood there. Stood there and stared in amazement and cold horror Huh?” My heart leaped. I let out a gasp and spun around. My mouth dropped open “Whoa—!” I let out a cry and spun around. Her green eyes grew wide with surprise I finally found my voice The words burst from my mouth. My cry sounded shrill and frightened. I stared at her. My brain did a flip-flop. My mouth dropped open. I blinked. Thinking hard. Trying to remember.

Set 6- Feelings (Panic)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Panic	Hushed gasps rang out around the room. “You can’t do this!” I screamed. My voice came out high and tiny, like a mouse voice. What I witnessed sent a shiver down my back I grabbed her shoulder to keep from collapsing. The harsh buzz sound nearly made me jump out of my skin. Received a call that filled us all with horror. Some gasped. A few cried out.
2	Panic - Bank robbery	The room echoed with heavy thuds and the rustle of clothes as we all obediently dropped to the floor. No one dared to go against the robber’s orders.
3	Panic - Calling an emergency line	He grabbed the phone receiver and jammed it to his ear. I saw him push the emergency number.
