Set 7- Feelings (Fear)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Fear	He shrieked in terror. His voice rang out shrilly in the silent living room. A shiver ran down my back His eyes bulging with fear, he pointed to the something behind me. His voice was agape but nothing came out of it. He returned to the living room a few seconds later, his whole body trembling She let out a horrified howl. My heart started to pound in my chest. I suddenly felt hot and cold at the same time. My legs suddenly felt rubbery and weak. I grabbed Walker's shoulder to keep from collapsing. Tabby stepped up and huddled close beside him. Her heavily made-up eyes were wide with fright. She grabbed Lee's arm He swallowed hard. A tiny gulping sound escaped his throat.

Set 8- Feelings (Fear)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Fear	My heart thudded in my chest. I let out a horrified howl Her chin quivered again. My scream rose like a shrill siren. I opened my mouth in an endless scream. The sound of heavy breathing made me gasp. Then I realized the sound came from Janet. A chill froze the back of my neck. “No—!” I let out a cry. And gaped at her in horror. I froze. My legs refused to move. With a loud cry, I finally managed to turn away. And I started to run. My heart pounded so hard it hurt. And my head throbbed with pain. I dove into the house and slammed the door behind me. Then I pressed my back against the door and struggled to catch my breath.
