Set 17 - Feelings (Dumbfounded)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Dumbfounded	I am a chatterbox by nature. But today I stood there frozen like a statue with the words refusing to get out of my mouth. I stood there with my mouth agape. Nothing but air came out of my mouth. "Hey—they—they—" I couldn't get the words out. She stuttered over the question, her tongue thick as she tried to force the words around the shame clogging her throat She stood there tongue-tied, unable to say anything She stood there speechless a while, struck dumb, tears filling up her eyes, her warm voice choked. At last, she found some words to make a reply.
