Set 28 - People (Various)

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Lady with makeup	She smiled her lipsticked lips at me Her blush was so strong, it resembled the cheeks of a clown but no one dared to tell her that. She had full, rouged lips and wide-spaced eyes, heavily made up. Her fingernails were red. Her hair hung in little rolled clusters, like sausages
2	Old person	A small, white-haired woman poked out her head. She squinted through thick eyeglasses at us. She pressed wrinkled hands against her cheeks He had winter-white hair. His skin was ghostly-white. His face was lined and his cheeks were sunken.

Set 29 - Writing anticipation

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Anticipation	I raised my eyes to the front of the room— and saw a sight that made me cry out in shock. The next few moments was something that would haunt my nightmares I was greeted by a sight that made my blood curdle What I witnessed made me jump out of my skin. The sight in front of me made my skin crawl I could not believe what I was seeing. I had to pinch myself to be sure! What happened next sent a shiver down my spine. My eyes almost popped out of my sockets when I saw what was behind the door. I was not ready for the next moment. It was unforgettable. The next few moments will forever be imprinted in my mind.

Set 30 - Eating

No	word/phrase	meaning
1	Eating	"I'm starving!" I cried. I poured myself a big bowl of my favorite cereal combo—Frosted Flakes and Corn Pops, all mixed together. I grabbed a spoon and began gobbling hungrily My stomach growled. I was feeling famished He devoured the entire meal down hungrily He wolfed down the entire sandwich in one bite Like a mouse, she nibbled on the sandwich. She chewed on the food with her mouth wide open. She munched on the biscuits hungrily, making the crumbs fly everywhere. She exclaimed, "Finally!" before shoveling another bite of eggs into her mouth. She got the words through a mouthful of roast beef "Yes, that's true!" she said in between bites.
