COMPARTIVE or SUPERLATIVE

Read the conversation and then put the adjectives in parentheses into the comparative or superlative form.

Vienna – Austria	Prague – Czech Republic	Istanbul - Turkey
Expensive	Moderately priced	Cheap
Crowded	Moderately crowded	Very crowded
Weather – 25°C	Weather – 25°C	Weather – around 30°C

A: So what do you think Max? Which is _____ (good) place for a vacation?

M: I don't know. We don't have a lot of money, so where will we pay the least amount of money?

A: Well, I think Prague is _____ (cheap) Vienna, but Istanbul is _____ (cheap) of all.

M: That's cool. But which city has _____ (cool) weather?

A: Well, Istanbul is definitely _____ (warm) both Vienna and Prague. Hmmm... I don't know. I'm stuck between Prague and Istanbul. I believe they are both _____ (beautiful) Vienna.

M: Yeah, I hear that as well. But I also hear that Istanbul is very crowded. I think Prague is _____ (crowded) of all.

A: Listen, I think we should go to Prague. It's _____ (close) and _____ (convenient) Istanbul. Don't you agree?

M: Yeah, you're right. OK then. Prague it is!

LIVEWORKSHEETS