

ENGLISH DIALOGUE

SUPERLATIVES

1. Read the dialogue, replace the words in red according to your opinion, and practice with your classmate.

- Student 1: Hey there! Let's chat about community helpers.
- Student 2: Hi! Sure, I'm all ears.
- Student 1: Who's the strongest community helper, you think?
- Student 2: Firefighters, definitely. They lift heavy things and save people from fires.
- Student 1: Agreed! Who's the bravest?
- Student 2: Police officers. They catch bad guys and keep us safe.
- Student 1: Makes sense! Who's the best at helping?
- Student 2: Doctors, for sure. They help sick people and make them better.
- Student 1: Totally! Who's the most skillful and expert?
- Student 2: Builders, no doubt. They make strong buildings and bridges.
- Student 1: You're right! Who's the smartest?
- Student 2: Teachers, definitely. They teach us so much.

- Student 1: Absolutely! Lastly, who's the toughest and bravest?
- Student 2: Firefighters, hands down. They face danger to help people.
- Student 1: Thanks for talking about this, partner!
- Student 2: My pleasure! Helpers are cool.
