MY TRIP TO LONDON

I live in Leeds, in the north of England. Last month, I _____ to London. I stayed for two nights.

I _____ on Monday afternoon and left on Wednesday afternoon. I stayed in a _____ near to the Tower of London. I went by train. It was fast and very _____. I visited the Tower. I saw the Crown Jewels. I also saw the place where people, including a queen of England, Anne Boleyn, were beheaded.

I had a trip to the British Museum. I wanted to see the Elgin marbles. The Elgin marbles are Greek sculptures. They were at the Parthenon in Athens, the capital of Greece, but a British man, Lord Elgin, brought them to Britain in 1816. Sadly, when I arrived, the Elgin Marble rooms were closed!

_____, but there was plenty other stuff to see. On Tuesday evening, I went to a _____

_____. It was 'The Windsors' - a comedy about the royal family. I didn't think it was _____, so I left at the interval. I ate at Brasserie Cote on Monday night and then on Tuesday night, I had fish and chips. I sat beside Tower Bridge and ate them while watching the world go by. The _____ was fine, so I had a long walk along the Thames and I saw some famous sites. There are many Roman remains in London. The old sits comfortably next to the new and _____. Everyone was very friendly. I had a great stay and I would like to return soon. By Lou.
