

Homework

1) Writing a letter to a friend to go to the cinema

Exercise 1: read my letter.

Dear Naomi,

How are you? Would you like to go to the cinema? There is a film called Frozen 2 on S  5pm.

Please tell me if you can come.

From,

Sarah

Exercise 2: Answer the questions.

- 1) Who is the letter written to? _____
- 2) Who is the letter from? _____
- 3) Where are going? _____
- 4) What is the name of the film? _____
- 5) What time does it start? _____

Think of:

- A friend's name: _____
- A film: _____
- A cinema: _____
- A day/ time: _____

Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps. Use your own words.

Dear _____,

How are _____? Would you like to go to the _____? There is a film called _____ on _____ at _____.

Please tell me if you can come.

From,

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.

2) Write a letter to go shopping

Exercise 1: Read my letter.

Dear Becky,

How are you? Would you like to go shopping with me on Saturday afternoon? I need to buy some new clothes and a book. I can meet you at the front of the shopping centre at 2pm.

Please tell me if you can come.

From,

Sarah

Exercise 2: Answer the questions.

- 1) Who is the letter written to? _____
- 2) Who is the letter from? _____
- 3) What does Sarah need? _____
- 4) Where is Sarah meeting Becky? _____
- 5) What time does Sarah say? _____

Think of:

- A friend's name: _____
- A place to go: _____
- Things to buy: _____
- A place to meet: _____

Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps. Use your own words.

Dear _____,

How are you? Would you like to _____ with me on _____? I need to buy _____ and _____. I can meet you at _____ the _____ at _____.

Please tell me if you can come.

From,

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.

3) Writing a letter to my teacher.

Exercise 1: read my letter.

Dear Georgina,

I'm sorry I can't come to your French lesson today. I have a hospital appointment.

Please can you give me the homework?

From,

Sarah

Exercise 2: Answer the questions.

- 1) What class does Sarah have? _____
- 2) Why can't Sarah come to class? _____
- 3) What does she ask for? _____

Think of:

- Your teacher's name: _____
- Your class: _____
- The reason you can't come: _____

Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps. Use your own words.

Dear _____,

I'm sorry I can't come to your _____ . I have _____ .

Please can you _____ ?

From,

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.

4) Write a Letter to Your Child's School

Task 1: Read the letter

Dear Mrs Green,

Please can my daughter Mariam have 1 day off school to attend a doctor's appointment in Exeter? She needs to see an ear specialist. It will be from Monday 9th February.

Please can Mariam have extra homework?

Best wishes,

Naomi Brown.

Task 2: Answer the questions:

- 1) Who is the letter written to? _____
- 2) Who is the letter written from? _____
- 3) How many days off does Mariam need? _____
- 4) What is her appointment? _____
- 5) When is her appointment? _____
- 6) What does Naomi ask for? _____

Task 3: Answer these questions:

Think of:

- The name of your child's teacher or your teacher: _____
- Your child's name: _____
- The reason for the day off: _____
- Which days(s) _____

Task 4: Fill in the gaps with your ideas:

Dear _____,

Please can my _____ have _____ day off school to attend a _____ appointment in _____? _____ needs to see _____. It will be on _____.

Please can _____ have extra homework?

Best wishes,

Naomi Brown.

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.

5) Writing a thank you letter.

Exercise 1: read my letter.

Dear Ruth,

How are you? Thank you so much for my birthday present and for coming to my party. I really liked the flowers and the party was great. The food was delicious!

From,

Sarah

Exercise 2: Answer the questions.

- 1) What is Sarah saying thank you for? _____
- 2) What present did she get? _____
- 3) What did she think of the party? _____

Think of:

- Your friend's name: _____
- What you are saying thank you for: _____

Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps. Use your own words.

Dear _____,

How are _____? Thank you so much for _____ and for _____. I really liked _____ and _____ was _____.

From,

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.

6) Writing a letter to apply for a job.

Exercise 1: read my letter.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

I would like to apply for the nursery assistant job in Plymouth School. I saw the job advertisement on your website. I have nursery work experience.

Please can you send me an application form?

Yours sincerely,

Fatima Hassan

Exercise 2: Answer the questions.

- 1) Who is the letter written to? _____
- 2) Who is the letter from? _____
- 3) What job is Fatima applying for? _____
- 4) Where did Sarah see the job advertisement? _____
- 5) What experience does she have? _____
- 6) How does she finish the letter? _____

Think of:

- A job: _____
- A place to work: _____
- Your work experience: _____

Exercise 3: Fill in the gaps. Use your own words.

Dear _____,

I would like to apply for the _____ job in your _____. I saw the job advertisement on your _____. I have _____ experience.

Please can you send me an _____ form?

Yours _____,

Exercise 4: Write your own letter now.
