

1. She has a brilliant imagination which is obvious in her [limited / imported / inventive / analytical] designs for furniture.
2. We walked at a slow [migration / pace / solution / bone] in the heat.
3. The [migration / imagination / analysis / phenomenon] of people from rural areas to cities has caused overcrowding and unemployment.
4. We have a [transformed / traditional / imported / limited] water supply in summer when it doesn't rain.
5. Europeans sailed across the Atlantic Ocean and [settled / imported / gathered / inhabited] in what is now known as North America.
6. He was a strong and [traditional / achieved / diverse / resilient] person and the fact that he could adapt to any situation made him a survivor.
7. We often visit the mountains and admire the [scenery / foodstuff / resilient / bone].
8. The painting changed [hands / subject / arms / its mind] for thousands of pounds when the owner sold it.
9. Grandpa used to be impatient, but he changed his [pace / mind / ways / hands] as an old man and became more patient.
10. I was going to visit Rome in winter, but I've had a change of [scenery / mind / hands / heart] and will go in spring.
11. This weekend, let's do something different [in / from / at / for] a change.
12. She is [adopt / adapt / adept / tough] at learning languages and can speak five of them fluently.
13. Do you think we evolved from apes or do you believe our species has different [roots / bills / manufacturer / origins]?
14. When in London, I usually [tribe / reside / gather / manage] with my sister.
15. Most mobile phones are [managed / manufactured / migrated / affected] in China, because it's cheaper to produce them there.