My name is Tom and I am twenty four years old. I have got green eyes and my hair is blonde and short. I am taller than my brother, but I am the shortest of my friends. Now I am an engineer student, but last year I studied medicine. My best friend's name is Pat. He is not a bad friend, so he is nice. Pat has got a sister and she is my girlfriend. In the future, she will be able to be my wife. She can't be my wife today because we are young.
