1 Reading and use of English

Read the text below and use the word given in capital letters at the end of some of the lines to form a word that fits the gap in the same line

The world is not sliding, but galloping into a new transnational dystopia. This development has not been 1recognised outside of 2
..... security circles. It has been 3
By secrecy, complexity and scale. The internet, our greatest tool of 4., has been transformed into the most 5facilitator of 6we have ever seen. The Internet is a threat to human civilization. These 7 have come about silently, because those who know what is going on, work in the global surveillance industry and have no incentives to speak out. Left to its own trajectory, within a few years 8..... Civilization will be a postmodern surveillance dystopia, from which escape for all but the most skilled 9 will be impossible. In fact, we may already be there. While many 10.have considered what the Internet means for global 11.....they are wrong. They are wrong because they do. Not have the sense of perspective that direct experiences brings. They are wrong because they have never met the enemy.
