

Write the correct form of the verb to be in the following sentences.

- You _____ a good friend.
- Mary and I _____ coworkers.
- We _____ hungry.
- The children _____ cute.
- They _____ 5 years old.
- The buildings _____ tall.
- They _____ new.
- Bill _____ handsome.
- He _____ a student.
- Erin _____ funny.
- She _____ a writer.
- My dog _____ huge.

- It _____ cute.

Negate the following sentences correctly.

Dr. Scott _____ busy.

We _____ come to our class early.

The Clarks _____ travelling to Georgia by plane.

Dorothy _____ have her class five days a week.

Mr. Rogers _____ like music very much.

Your secretaries _____ efficient.

Fill in the blanks with the verb in brackets.

1. That book _____ new. (be)
2. I usually _____ on Saturday. (work)
3. _____ Mr. Thompson _____ in a bank? (work)
4. The sentence _____ interesting. (be)
5. I always _____ to work early in the morning. (go)
6. _____ your father usually _____ to work at 9:00 o'clock?
7. The answer _____ right.
8. _____ Betty Happy?

Change the sentences from simple present to present progressive and vice versa.

1. Michael works in a big company 5 days a week.
2. The children don't play in the park.

3. My co-workers live near my house.
4. My brother studies medicine.
5. Does your mother write letters in English?
6. Paul is studying Spanish here.

Make wh questions for the words in italics.

1. Those students are Mary and Dorothy.

_____?

2. My books are in the drawer.

_____?

3. Those are chairs.

_____?

4. That boy is Fred Scott.

_____?

5. Your pen is on my desk.

_____?